DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claim 20 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In Claim 20, line 9 is uncertain relative to the language "predetermined one". It appears that "one" should be pluralized (as compared with the receive beams in line 10).

In line 2, it appears that "element" should be pluralized.

Clarification is requested.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claim 20 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Sreenivas (5093668).

Regarding Claim 20, Sreenivas shows a complete transmit and receive system in Figures 3 and 4 comprising a first transmit array 32 and a receive array 40 for simultaneously forming a plurality of receive beams, a beam switching system.

Art Unit: 2828

58,66 and beamformer 80 (Fig. 4) for defining a beam combining system coupled to the second receive array 40. It would have been obvious to the skilled artisan to provide two way beams with the systems of Figures 3 and 4 in view of the suggestion by Sreenivas in column 5, second paragraph, where the transmit system may receive more the receive beams and thus form a plurality of transmit beams.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 1-19 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

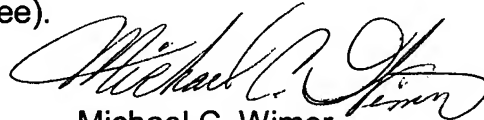

6. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims of record have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.
